

Guidelines for the Prevention and Anti-Fraud and Corruption

in affiliated THAIFOODS Group

For Directors, Executives, Employees at all levels do not get involved in Corruption whether directly or indirectly, including prohibiting Executives, Employees at all levels must not solicit or accept Corruption for the profit of an individual, family, friend, or acquaintance.

Not neglect or ignore when an action that is considered corruption related to the company is found and must be notified to the supervisor or person responsible for acknowledgment, including the need to cooperate in investigating the facts.

If you have any questions or want to ask your supervisor or the responsible person through various channels.

Provide fairness and protection to employees who report corruption or deny corruption by implementing measures to protect complainants.

Practice gifts, entertainment, expenses, giving and receiving in accordance with the requirements of the Code of Conduct or regulations of the Company.

Procurement practices and business relations it is forbidden to give or accept bribes in all kinds of business operations in the operation of the company, including working with the government must be conducted transparently and in accordance with relevant laws.

Create and maintain an organizational culture Anti - Corruption in both public and private sectors.

