

An illustration of a hand in a dark blue sleeve holding a gold coin with a dollar sign on it.

Charitable donations and sponsorships

in affiliate THAIFOODS Group

A red, rounded rectangular button with the word 'DONATE' in white, bold, uppercase letters.

DONATE

THAIFOODS should exercise caution when making charitable donations and sponsorships because it is an activity that involves spending money with no tangible return, it can pose a risk of fraud.

GUIDELINES

Handling charitable donations or sponsorships including giving or receiving must be transparent and can be verified legally.

Register of records and documents related to donations/sponsorships as evidence for examination.

Donations or sponsorships will be given to legally registered organizations with a clear purpose to use the assets received for public benefit or disaster victim assistance.

THAIFOODS will not donate/give financial support to individuals.

Organization that wish to donate or provide financial support prepare a record approval for supervisors to approve according to the line of work. In the record, specify the name of the donor or support recipient, the objectives and the budget or items to be donated or sponsored, including all procedures