

Human Resource Management

in affiliate THAIFOODS Group

THAIFOODS has human resource management to support the effective Anti-Corruption policy and to prevent all forms of corruption.

Guidelines

The Anti-Corruption policy has been applied to the personnel management process from recruitment or selection of personnel, preferment, training, evaluation performance. The compensation must be appropriate and accurate.

Awareness has been raised to understand and realize the importance of Anti-Corruption. The company provides orientation, training and knowledge testing on the Anti-Corruption policy.

Penalties for violating the Anti-Corruption Policy were clarified to the Directors, Executives and Employees for their acknowledgment

The Company will not demote, punish, or give negative results to employees who refuse fraud and corruption, even if such behavior can lead to the Company losing business opportunities.

